A Safety Razor For The Self Shaver

There is nothing that affords more comfort and satisfaction than a good shave. Many self shavers, however, continue to use the old methods—a regular razor that requires strapping and honing. For such we have the necessary equipment. But most young men are using safety razors, as the use of such a razor requires no special skill in handling, and the method is much faster.

We handle all of the good Safety Razors: The Gillette, Autostrop, Keen-Kutter, Everready, Enders, Etc.
